Thoughts and Prayers from Father Zwilling

Imagine you are driving home from Sunday Mass. What are the chances that you remember what the readings were that you just heard half an hour ago? Mmmm... not always good! If we're honest, sometimes we get distracted or we aren't quite paying attention during the readings. It could be because we can't hear the readers too well, or we are trying to wrangle children, or we are thinking of lunch, or any number of reasons. But we end up missing the readings.

This happened to me recently (yes me, the priest!). You see, usually I am reviewing the coming readings over and over during the week because I am preparing for my homily. But on this particular week, Deacon Bill was preaching the homily. So it was really his fault! (Haha) I failed to look at the readings before Mass, and when I was finally sitting in my seat listening, a lot of it kind of went in one ear and out the other. At that moment, I came to realize how helpful it is to look at the readings before Mass or have some kind of reinforcement besides just hearing them.

Sometimes the ears need a little help from the eyes. It can aid our comprehension to read along with what the reader is saying at Mass. So, what if we would like to follow along with the readings during Mass? I promise I'm not getting a commission out of this, but here are three alternatives:

#1 – The Midwest Theological Forum Daily Roman Missal. This is my real “brush like a dentist” recommendation because it's what I use, and it's excellent. It has every reading for every day of the year (not just Sunday), prayers and devotions, and the excellent “How to Be a Better Catholic” section.

#2 – St. Joseph Sunday Missal. If you search for this, you will find a smaller missal that just has the Sunday readings.

#3 – USCCB.org. The website of the US Catholic Bishops, it has a link with all the daily readings at the top of the front page. It's good if you are looking for something that's free.

I hope this will help if you are looking for a resource. The Word of God is a precious treasure. Let's not miss it!

Baptism: Parents are asked to call the rectory to arrange for a Baptism meeting with the pastor. A date for the Baptism will be arranged at your preparation meeting.

Marriage: Couples wishing to marry at the parish should contact the parish office as soon as possible to reserve a date for the wedding and to schedule a time to meet with the pastor. Contact should be made no less than six months before your intended date of marriage.

Anointing of the Sick: Individuals who are suffering from a chronic illness should receive the Anointing of the Sick. Please contact the parish office for a time to receive the sacrament.

Visitation of the Sick: Visitation, prayer, and Communion are offered to our homebound and/or sick on a regular basis. Simply call the parish office.

Hospital Visitation: If you know of a parishioner who is in a hospital, please contact the parish office to inform us of an admission as no hospital is allowed to contact us. Be sure to specify the location of the hospital.

Joining St. Paul's: Anyone who wishes to may join St. Paul's. We are proud of our parish's hospitality, warmth, and friendship. We invite you to become part of our parish family. Once you are comfortable among us, we invite you to join any of our parish organizations or programs. We encourage each single adult in a family to be registered in his or her own name. If you must leave the parish, please let us know. In your journey, we wish you well and thank you for the time you spent with us.

Did you ever wonder about the Saints whom Father Zwilling frequently mentions during the Mass? Over the next few weeks, we will be highlighting these Saints in this article called ...

Saint of the Week

Saints Cosmas and Damian

Feast Day: September 26th

Patron Saint of: physicians, surgeons, pharmacists, and twins

Cosmas and Damian were Arabian twins, born of devoutly Christian parents around 270 CE. They grew up with three other brothers in Aegeae, a small town between Turkey and Syria and on the route from Antioch to Tarsus, an ancient city in south-central Turkey near the Mediterranean Sea. This region was within the expansive Roman Empire, and the twins lived during the reign of Emperor Diocletian. In this time and place, the Roman state aggressively persecuted its Christians.

Cosmas and Damian studied medicine in Antioch and then returned to Aegeae to practice and proselytize. As physicians, they reputedly never accepted payment for their services. Feats of uncommon medical prowess ascribed to Cosmas and Damian include cures from dreaded infectious diseases, return of eyesight to the blind, as well as restoring ambulation to patients with disabilities.

Cosmas and Damian, however, were mercilessly punished for their devotion, both to the practice of healing and especially to their religious commitments. On the orders of Diocletian, Cosmas and Damian were arrested. As was the custom, the brothers were given the opportunity to publicly renounce their faith and honor the Roman gods in order to spare their lives. They refused and were sentenced to torture and execution. Legend states that they were miraculously preserved from suffering during their torture, sustaining no injuries. They were martyred together, along with their three other brothers.

St. Paul the Apostle's Disciple Maker Index Survey

The Disciple Maker Index Survey is open and we need your help! Please help us participate by completing a 10-15 minute survey as soon as possible.

Every adult in each household should fill out the survey. The survey can be accessed through the online link listed below until March 27th. All responses will be confidential and the parish will only receive information about the community as a whole. We are trying to get the highest response rate possible. This information will be invaluable to Father Zwilling and our various ministries as we plan for the future and strive to be the best disciples we can be. When results are available, we will share what we have learned with the entire parish.

portal.catholicleaders.org/dmi/survey/b6a9cb

Paper copies of the survey may be picked up in the Gathering Space and at the Rectory.

Annual Diocesan Appeal 2024

In today's Gospel, zeal for His Father's house consumes Jesus. He single-handedly drives out those who are making the Temple into a marketplace. The Jews asked, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" (John 2:18)

Jesus' reply is that He is God. He is going to rise from the dead! He holds the power over life, death, and all things. His zeal for His Father's house is one of many manifestations of who God is to the world. (God, apparently, likes a clean house!)

Zeal consumes Jesus for our parish. We are God's house. Each of us is a Temple of His Holy Spirit. The way we handle money matters to God. Our parish needs your help for our Annual Diocesan Appeal to succeed. Help us use the gifts He gives to beautify His house, adorning it with prayer and good works, and improve the lives of those entrusted to us. Jesus is zealous for us all to have the abundant life He offers - not a life suffocated by this world. Join us in living a better life - His life.

Pancake Mix and Pancake Syrup

Please put your donations in the box located near the entrance door of Fr. Shori Hall.

St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Store Update

We want to thank all our generous donors for the overwhelming response to our request for donated household goods, clothing, and furniture. Due to the massive response, we are going to pause accepting donated goods until we open for business, hopefully within the next six to eight weeks, in our new location next to the "old Joann's." We are, however, still accepting large appliances. (See page 6 of this bulletin for pick-up information.) We will soon send out a request for more volunteers to assist with our massive move-in project. Thank you for your support and assistance in this important expansion of our mission.

Easter Memorials

To have your loved ones remembered for our Easter Memorials, please enclose $5 per deceased person's name in an envelope marked: Altar Guild Easter Memorials and place in the Offertory basket, or mail or bring to the Rectory by Monday, March 25th.
